LATONIA GETS MORE RAIN

MUDDY TRACK CONDITIONS FOLLOW BRISK DOWNPOUR AT KENTUCKY COURSE.

Al Muller Shows His Superlative Soft Track Ability by Prevailing Over Good Opposition in Handicap -High Private and Merrick Other Winners.

Cincinnati, O., July 11.—Brisk rains that fell this morning again produced muddy track conditions and caused the attendance to fall off. The card was not greatly affected and excellent sport was provided. Close finishes, following long sustained stretch drives, marked most of the races. The principal offering, a handicap at three-quarters, brought out a splendid field, including the speedy filles, Ocean Bound, Round the World and Follie Levy. The latter was the only one to get any portion of the purse. Al Muller scored in sensational style in the last stride over Elfin Beau, with Follie Levy third. Elfin Beau furnished the surprise of the race by leading his opposition almost throughout. J. R. Wainwright, owner of Al Muller, scored a double when High Private took the fifth race in impressive fashion with John Furlong in second place and Cherryola third. It was the first purse that High Private has succeeded in winning at this meeting. The consistent Merrick again figured in a desperate contest, and in this instance succeeded in landing a purse. Quartermaster, intended as the medium for a coup, just failed to score after a slow beginhing. The closing dash went to Sir Catesby, which showed an improved performance and a decided liking for the going. Colonel Cook came with a rush in the second to land the purse after he had appeared a forlorn hope. The opener, in which thirteen started, which was the largest number that have gone to the post in any race here except in stakes, enabled T. C. McDowell's Affable to graduate from the maiden ranks, Island Queen, a first-time starter, landing second place, and Betty Fuller being third.

Today's speculation again showed an increase. The majority of the purses were accounted for by second and third choices.

On her showing this afternoon, Ocean Bound seems to have lost much of her good form and to be in need of a letup.

J. C. Milam today sold to V. Barker the horses the Royal of the stables that have been engaged in the racing here will ship their strings the last of the w

Presiding Judge Price will be absent from the Latonia stand next Saturday, as he will go to Windsor Friday night to be on hand for the opening day at the Canadian course.

J. B. Respess is undecided where he will ship after the close of racing here, but he probably will send some of his horses to Windsor.

The horses of F. R. Hitchcock and R. T. Wilson will be sent to Saratoga next week.

HORSES GATHERING AT WINDSOR

Barney Schreiber Sends Word That Jack Atkin Is Again in Training and May Be Expected.

Again in Training and May Be Expected.

Detroit, Mich., July 11.—August Belmont's string of thoroughbreds that are campaigning over the Canadian circuit arrived at Windsor last night from Fort Erie. Waitervale, Trap Rock, Whist and other stars of the track were in the consignment. This is the first time in the history of the course that Mr. Belmont's horses have been seen here. The maroon and red sleeves and black cap will prove a notable accession for the sport which opens across the river on Saturday next. There are fourteen head in the Belmont string. The horses of Harry Payne Whitney and James Rowe also arrived at Windsor last night. R. F. Carman's string, numbering thirtyone, and R. E. Watkins' horses are due to arrive from Fort Erie tomorrow morning, together with S. C. Hildreth's formidable string of thirty-six. Mr. Hildreth made no less than eighty nominations for the Windsor stakes and he will have one or more starters in each one of the local fixtures.

John W. Schorr's string of twenty-one, including Edda, will be domiciled at the Windsor track before morning, as will also the horses of the Valley Farm Stable and W. W. Darden. By Saturday 150 horses that have been racing at Latonia will be here. Barney Schreiber wired that he will ship Jack Atkin to Windsor this week, the training of this speedy son of Sain having recently been resumed at Woodlands. William Cahill will be in charge of the Schreiber string, which in addition to Jack Atkin, will embrace Sager and other good ones.

It is expected that a greater number of book-makers will do business during the coming meeting than ever more ready for racing than at the present time.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Max Hirsch will ship Taboo from Latonia to Wind-

An attempt to hold a fourteen-days meeting at Muskogee, Okla., has been abandoned.

Messenger Boy went lame in a recent work-out at Latonia and probably will be retired until fall. Peter Wimmer and Theodore Abadie will rest their horses at Churchill Downs until fall racing begins in Kentucky.

Thomas Dolan, who rode about a decade ago for Thomas McHale of Memphis, was shot and killed in Memphis hotel Sunday.

a memphis notel Sunday.

J. C. Cahn will go to Canada for the rest of the summer, but will ship his horses to Churchill Downs to await the opening of fall racing at Lexington.

James McManus is planning to take Presumption to Canada, but most of his horses probably will be shipped to Louisville at the close of the Latonia meeting.

It was necessary to destroy Execute following his breakdown at Lagoon Saturday. This horse had been racing successfully in the colors of Powell & Parker for several years.

The Dufferin Park meetings at Toronto this year will be from Wednesday, August 2, to Wednesday, August 9, and from Saturday, September 9, to Saturday, September 16.

J. E. Widener scored two victories at the Rambouillet race course in France yesterday, his East River winning the Prix de Voisinss and his Avenue the Prix de Maintenon.

Charles W. Clark's Francine and G. W. Berry's Ymir have been matched for $2,500 a side at the Lagoon track. The distance will be five-eighths of a mile, Francine to carry 115 and Ymir 118.

J. Johnson, owner of the Quincy Stable, has changed trainers. Clint DeWitt, who trained the horses for two years, turned Everett and Warbler over to E. Phelan, who has shipped them from Fort Erie to Gravesend. The rest of the string has been disposed of.

disposed of.

Said August Belmont in London last Saturday:

"It has been charged that gambling on race tracks is a distinct feature of New York life. Can Englishmen imagine London without Derby day? Or Paris without a Grand Prix? The racing situation in New York at present is due to bigotry and hypocated?"

Jerome Held, Immanuel Marks and William Howell, who were taken into custody during the recent meeting at Hawthorne for alleged violation of the gambling laws of Illinois, have succeeded in obtaining a change of venue from Judge Edward Kendall's court to that of Judge Frank A. McKee at Oak Park. Their case will come up July 18.

Already horsemen are speculating on probable dates for the fall racing in Kentucky. There will be an abundance of horses in Kentucky this season to begin racing the last week in August or the first week in September and race until well on into November. Early meetings this season would be popular with the horsemen.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Something like the Bertillon finger print system lar with the borsemen.—Louisville Courier-Jouraal.

Something like the Bertillon finger print system was applied to a horse the other day in Paris. Before the start for a race Badajoz amused himself by letting out freely with his heels at his rivals and succeeded in kicking Baron de Rothschild's Kildare II. After the race Kildare II. s injuries were examined and a perfect imprint of Badajoz' shoe was found on his skin. A committeeman present at the examination exclaimed: "What's this?" and forthwith inflicted a fine of $300 on Shields, the kicker's trainer, for the imprint showed clearly that Badajoz wore certain American shoes forbidden by French racing regulations, which insist on perfectly flat plates.—New York Sun.

TOM WELSH MEETS OLD FRIENDS ABROAD

New York, July 11.—Trainer Tom Weish is back from a trip abroad, where he saw considerable racing, met many old friends and had a fine time generally. He is looking in the best of health, having entirely recovered, apparently, from the severe attack that he experienced a year or more ago. Mr. Weish left for Europe about two months ago to visit the Duryea training establishment in France, with a view of looking the horses over and possibly remaining in that country. He had the privilege of signing a good contract, but considered the time too short. He reports that the Duryea horses are a good lot, "I visited a greaf many breeding farms," said he, "and was much impressed with the racing in France."

In England he was the guest of his old friend, A. J. Joyner, at Ballaton Lodge, Newmarket, and in France he was under the hospitable wing of Eugene Leigh, who has a large establishment with a hundred horses have been winners this season.

"On all sides you see Americans," said Mr. Welsh, "and they all appear to be doing well. Enoch Wishard has about fifteen horses close to Leigh's place and has won a few races up to date. All are looking well and presperous."

Richard Croker greeted the American trainer cheerily at the course and after much talk of other racing days in America, gave him an invitation to the race meeting at Cork, which Mr. Welsh was unable to accept.

"It's great racing over there," the trainer said as he glanced about the deserted stretches of Gravesend. He has some horses still in training, among them Textile and Paton, and both are doing well.
